

information for independent,
progressive, community campaigners in Newham

www.radicalactivistnewham.org.uk

Radical Activist Newham is a new website set up to publicise independent, progressive and radical campaigning activities in the London borough of Newham. This includes information on

- Opposition to any racist backlash against Newham's Muslim communities in the aftermath of the London tube and bus bombings
- Campaign activities against the DSEi arms fair at the ExCel Centre in Custom House
- The campaign to defend Queens Market in Upton Park
- Campaigning to highlight people's rights under the increasingly draconian anti-terrorism legislation
- The impact of the Olympic Games on the borough
